State of Alaska FY2024 Governor's Operating Budget

Department of Public Safety
Special Projects
Component Budget Summary

Component: Special Projects

Contribution to Department's Mission

Preserve public peace, protect life, property, and resources.

Core Services

- Provide law enforcement within the Chugach and Tongass National Forests through U.S. Forest Service contracts.
- Participate in a taskforce environment to investigate smuggling and distribution of controlled substances with Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) support.
- Deter crime by depriving criminals of the profits and proceeds of their illegal activities through narcotics suppression federal forfeitures.
- Support law enforcement officer overtime with DEA and Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) funding.
- Promote domestic violence and sexual assault investigation training statewide, using funds from the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault.

Major Component Accomplishments in 2022

Working with the U.S. Forest Service, the department provided cooperative effort between the enforcement agencies to enhance state and local law enforcement activities on federal lands in the Chugach and Tongass National Forests.

The state's asset seizures from criminal drug investigations go directly into the state's General Fund. The Federal Narcotics Suppression (forfeitures) Program provides the department and other law enforcement agencies with limited funding for equipment for transportation, officer protection, training, communications, and surveillance equipment.

The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) and Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) overtime funds allow investigators assigned to specialized task force positions to focus on the pursuit of violent drug offenders and individuals involved in organized crime.

The Alaska High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas (HIDTA) program provides funding for trooper overtime funds and allows the acquisition of greatly needed equipment, training, and the ability to travel in and out of state to conduct high level drug trafficking and distribution cases.

In FY2022, AST's Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (DVSA) statewide program coordinated or participated in 48 training sessions and trained a total of 1,354 multidisciplinary professionals. Of these, 541 were law enforcement officers and an additional 154 were correctional officers. The remainder were members of other professions including prosecutors, forensic medical providers, victim advocates, and tribal representatives. In FY2022, the DVSA program continued to provide specialized virtual training on domestic violence and sex crimes investigations. Academy level training remained in person.

In conjunction with Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (CDVSA) and our multidisciplinary partners, Alaska State Troopers (AST) hosted two four-day (virtual) sexual assault response team (SART) training conferences for multidisciplinary team members including law enforcement, medical providers, prosecutors, and victim advocates.

AST continued virtual training by sponsoring a summer and winter training series which was conducted in partnership with Department of Law and Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (ANDVSA). This instruction built on the existing SART training to provide additional and/or advanced skills and information to all Multi-Disciplinary Team members. Topics included: anonymous reporting, sex trafficking, working with survivors with disabilities, drug facilitated sexual assault, and electronic evidence.

In partnership with Department of Law and ANDVSA, AST sponsored two advanced strangulation response and investigation virtual courses. The DVSA program continues to support the Village Police Officer (VPO) training academy held in Bethel, Alaska at the Yuut Elitnaurviat Learning Center. This course covers both domestic violence and sexual assault investigations. The DVSA program also provided training to the Department of Corrections Academy.

The DVSA unit, working under a cooperative agreement with CDVSA (federal funding), began the process of developing a training curriculum for the enforcement of valid tribal protective orders which is known as "full faith and credit." During this process, DPS identified the need to have tribal protective orders entered into the Alaska Public Safety Information Network (APSIN), should a tribal court so choose. DPS Division of Statewide Services anticipates this feature will soon be available to enhance tribal-state partnerships.

In partnership with CDVSA and ANDVSA, educational and public awareness materials were developed to educate the public, victims and helping professionals on anonymous reporting of sexual assault. These materials are being distributed statewide. DPS was also part of the curriculum review team that reviewed and made necessary adaptation and edits to the existing SART curriculum.

While law enforcement officers receive training in the trauma-informed approach for interviewing victims of domestic violence and sexual assault at the academy and during SART training, a need for additional training on this topic was identified. In FY2022, DPS instituted a single source contract with Certified Forensic Experiential Trauma Interview (FETI), to utilize the online basic methodology course grounded in the science of the neurobiology of trauma. Most AST investigators and rural patrol troopers have completed the training. In addition, selected municipal detectives and officers were offered the opportunity.

AST in partnership with Alaska Police Standards Council (APSC), continues to develop and explore options for online training materials. DPS continues to ensure that municipal police agencies benefit from DPS subject matter expertise and STOP VAWA grant funds.

The DVSA unit staffs the newly formed Council on Human and Sex Trafficking (CSHT) and coordinated all meetings and sub-committee in the effort to fully meet the designated duties of the CHST.

Key Component Challenges

The capabilities and efficiency of personnel within the criminal justice system in Alaska, both within the Department of Public Safety (DPS) and other agencies need to be increased to obtain the best use of available personnel. Ongoing training is one factor that is key to continued improvements in law enforcement response and performance. Staffing levels for both DPS and municipal law enforcement agencies make it challenging to provide training opportunities while maintaining vital coverage for emergency response and critical investigations. Virtual training opportunities have allowed for additional troopers and municipal officers to receive training that they otherwise may not have received. Additional availability for law enforcement training was a short-term benefit of trial postponement due to COVID-19 restrictions.

DPS's training budget for DVSA training outside of the Sitka academy is predominately from the single source of the federal VAWA STOP grant. This grant is administered by CDVSA. While an increase in training opportunities on trauma informed interviewing for adults has emerged, additional training on the "practical applications" of the skills learned still exists. Currently, AST does not have the training dollars to support this project and is exploring possible sources of funding.

To further maximize training efforts and grant funds, AST collaborates with the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, Department of Law and Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault. Without these partnerships, fewer training opportunities would be available for law enforcement statewide, including both Alaska State Troopers and municipal agencies as well as Village Public Safety Officers and Village Police Officer/Tribal Police Officers.

Importation of controlled substances to meet high demand remains one of the significant problems facing society. The introduction of fentanyl—an adulterating additive to many drugs such as heroin, methamphetamine, cocaine, and counterfeit pills—has made controlled substances more lethal not only for the consumer but also for those who inadvertently encounter these substances. Alaska lacks sufficient resources to provide effective treatment for offenders to prevent recidivism, which only increases the challenges faced by law enforcement agencies.

Importation of alcohol and drugs into rural Alaskan communities by organizations lured to Alaska by the high profit potential continues to be a significant challenge. Though several federal agencies offer task force programs to enhance collaborative law enforcement efforts, many smaller communities cannot spare or do not have any personnel or resources to combat the problem. This in turn makes it difficult for AST to find law enforcement partners to conduct effective drug and alcohol investigations in many communities in Alaska.

Significant Changes in Results to be Delivered in FY2024

Alaska State Troopers (AST) will continue its active support to end the epidemic of sexual assault and domestic violence by providing enhanced training to law enforcement and first responders to increase understanding and recognition of these crimes to improve services to victims in Alaska and to promote the reporting of these crimes.

AST now has funds to staff a new Victim Witness Paralegal program in the department. An evaluation will take place to determine if additional positions are needed in other communities. The current positions are in Anchorage, Bethel, Fairbanks, Mat-Su, Nome, and Soldotna. In addition, AST now has a full-time permanent training specialist which is assigned to the DVSA unit. This position will significantly increase the capabilities of the unit.

AST will focus resources on training efforts related to the statutory changes contained within HB 325 and the new definition of "without consent" to ensure all law enforcement agencies are prepared to respond, investigate, and enforce the new statues.

The DVSA training unit will continue to provide in person instruction at the DPS academy in Sitka and the VPO academy in Bethel. Furthermore, the DVSA program will continue to analyze and review department policies, procedures, and practices to ensure that every effort is made to conform to state laws and national best practices.

In partnership with Department of Law and with funding from CDVSA, AST will host regional trainings on Full Faith and Credit and the enforcement of valid tribal protective orders. DPS will work directly with tribal courts regarding the necessary "user exchange agreement" and development of business practices to enter tribal courts in APSIN.

AST will continue to establish and maintain outstanding collaborative relationships with all federal/state/local law enforcement agencies involved in the investigation of narcotics trafficking and distribution statewide. Additionally, AST will continue to seek out non-law enforcement and non-governmental organizations to partner with to reduce the effects of drugs and alcohol on Alaska communities.

AST, in partnership with Alaska HIDTA program participants, is dedicated to the investigation and interdiction of illegal drugs within Alaska as well as tracing illicit shipments back to source locations. In FY2022, there are 13 local agencies, 4 state agencies, and 10 federal agencies assigned to the Alaska HIDTA program. Of those agencies, there are 29 local participants, 37 state participants, and 32 federal participants. Of those participants, there are 25 full-time local participants, 35 full-time state participants, and 16 federal full-time participants. AST will seek additional partnerships with municipal law enforcement agencies to combat narcotics trafficking through Alaska HIDTA.
